

Night of the Iguana

Fred Antonio, Central Florida Zoological Park general curator, welcomed the zoo's newest attraction, a Jamaican iguana, which arrived earlier this week. The iguana was hatched in 1993 and is expected to mature in two years.

Herald Photo by Tommy Vincent